UNOPA 2019-2020
Floyd S. Oldt Boss of the Year Award

The University of Nebraska Office Professionals Association (UNOPA) established an annual award to recognize University of Nebraska employees who demonstrate excellence in personnel management with their outstanding skills in employee supervision and interpersonal relations. Since 1991, this award has been funded through a generous endowment from the Floyd S. Oldt Trust.

Any full-time employee with management, administrative and/or supervisory responsibilities is eligible for nomination. An individual is eligible to be the recipient of this award only once. Nominations will be accepted for the University of Nebraska-Lincoln employees. University of Nebraska District Research and Extension Center employees, and employees of UNO and UNMC whose primary work location is on the Lincoln campus. In the event of a tie of total points given by the judges, the monetary award will be split among the winners.

The recipient of the award will revive a monetary cash award of $500, a plague, and a one-year UNOPA membership. All Floyd S. Oldt Boss of the Year Award Nominees will receive a printed certificate to commemorate their nomination and will be recognized at the presentation luncheon on Tuesday, November 12, 2019.

Guidelines and Instructions to submit nomination:

1. One or two typed pages – nomination according to the criteria listed below and in blind format.

2. Three (3) letters of recommendation in support of this nomination are required. Support letters must be in “blind format”. Only nominations with three support letters will be considered.

What is a “blind format”? To help assure impartially, nominee’s name, title and department are noted only on the front cover page. (Judges do not receive the cover page.) For all other pages (one or two pages addressing criteria plus support letters), do not use the nominee’s name, department or reference to gender. To reference nominee, it is suggested to use: this person, this nominee, this individual, our nominee, etc. Note: Any reference to nominee’s name or gender will be blackened by the Award Committee before the package goes to the judges. This makes it very difficult for the judges to read and may be a detriment to the nomination.

3. To be considered, nominees must meet ALL eligibility requirements. Judging will be based on a point system for each criteria section.
