Prizes were also awarded to Alicia Arnold (Hershey's Chocolate Recipes), Diane Wasser (Valentine's Day gift bag), and Stephanie Vendetti (cookbook, measuring spoons). The Valentine's Day themed centerpieces were also given away.

GUEST SPEAKER

Jane Schneider introduced our guest speaker, Jan Deeds, Director of the Women's Center and Associate Director of Gender Programs. Jan earned a Bachelor's of Arts in Psychology, a Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology, and a PhD in Educational Administration from UNL.

Jan's presentation focused on the Women's Center. Although designed for students, the Women's Center is open to students, staff, and community members regardless of gender or identity. Services provided by the Women's Center include free confidential counseling, peer educator training, Men @ Nebraska, UNL Victim Advocate, volunteer opportunities, and a resource library.

Other programs include Bystander Intervention Training, Women's Week in March and a Week without Violence in October.

Please contact the Women's Center for further information at 340 Nebraska Union or 472-2597.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Notices of nomination have been sent out for our elected offices. Mary Klucas encourage all to place their names on the ballot.

We will be submitting materials for several NAEOP awards. Please submit materials for the March edition of UNOPA Notes to Andrea Peterson by Friday, February, 14th. The March edition will be submitted for judging. Linda Luedtke will also be contacting members for the Louise Henderson Nelson award submission.

Our next meeting will be Tuesday, March 11, 2014 at the Jackie Gaughan Multicultural Center.

Meeting adjourned at 12:55 p.m.
